

TYPOLOGY	ORIGIN
Dry White Wine	Albana di Campiglia (La Spezia - Italy)

VINEYARDS	VINES
Location: Albana di Campiglia (Cinque Terre National Park) Vineyards Extension: 2 Hectares (5 Acres) Altitude: 180-50 mt asl (590 – 165 ft) Laying: South East Soil: Sandstone, Limestone and red argillites Pattern of plant: Row	Every year we make a careful choice of our 5 Terre DOC grapes to create a more engaging and savory wine that we call ALTER EGO. Thanks to recent updates of 5 TERRE DOC regulations we created our new ALTER EGO 5 TERRE DOC Species: Bosco 80%;Albarola 10%; Vermentino 10% Density: <= 1 plant/mq Kind of Pruning: Guyot Gems: 6-8 per plant
TASTING NOTES	WINE MAKING TECHNIQUE
Straw yellow color with greenish reflections, clear and bright. Flavors come with notes of Mediterranean bush, with good intensity and persistence. Palate is soft and velvety at the entrance, and over the seconds reveals all its savory and mineral vein with classic almond aftertaste. Serving suggestions: fish, mollusks, crustaceans and white meat To be served between: 13-15°C (55-60F) Bottle Type: bordolese Alcohol:13-14 degrees	Handpicked selection of grapes Destemming and pressing Fermentation on natural yeasts Ageing on its lees for about 5 months Aged in stainless steel for about 3 months Bottle aging for about 2 months